

Youth Group Event

On December 30th the youth group will take a trip to Ocean City, MD for the Winterfest of Lights. We will leave St. Paul's Church at 6pm on Friday night and return approximately 10pm.

Food

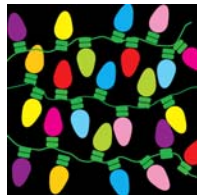

No food will be provided by the church. However, beverages will be available for purchase from local shops.

snacks and
Ocean City

Fun

We will enjoy this winter family! We will ride Winterfest Express. we glide past spectacular of Christmas and your Village which is located inside a festive, heated tent decorated for the season.

paradise that has been created for the whole through an animated wonderland on the Board the train and sing Christmas Carols as lighted displays including the Twelve Days favorite fairy tales. Visit the Winterfest

Advanced signup for this event is required in order to arrange transportation and purchase tickets. Remember that this is an outside event and that the children should be properly dressed for the cold weather.

Parental permission slips are required and can be found on the church web page under the youth heading. <http://www.stpaulsgeorgetown.org/Youth.htm>

Anyone wishing to help with the youth or has ideas for some fun outings, please contact me at 855-5756.

God Bless all the little children,
Chris